

MOUNT FIELD fagus festival

100 YEARS 1916-2016
TASMANIAN NATIONAL PARKS

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF TASMANIAN PARKS

23-24 April

10am-4pm

MOUNT FIELD
NATIONAL PARK

Join this special weekend celebration at one of our oldest and most popular national parks.

Entertainment: Aboriginal dancing (pakana kanaplila), folk and blues (Dave Steel and Tiffany Eckhardt), country (Devils Own Bush Band), concert band, wood chopping demos

Fun and discovery: Discovery Ranger activities and guided walks to Russell Falls tall trees and Lake Fenton fagus

Aboriginal culture workshops: Twining and ochre painting

Community stalls: Activities and displays from those who play at Mount Field (skiing, caving, bushwalking, local primary school)

Great food and drinks

Lucky door prizes

Free park entry all weekend!

What's on each day?

See the events calendar at: www.parks.tas.gov.au/centenary

